RE: Cease and Desist Demand for Defamatory Commentary

Dear Ines Venturini,

My name is Chase A.S. Beguin, and I represent Tolú Tahmassbi both in her individual capacity and on behalf of her business, Language Connection, LLC. I am writing to you in response to your comments made on public forums and through business related channels accusing my client of defrauding clients. These false accusations directly harm not only her personal reputation, but also the goodwill and economic stability of her company.

I have reviewed the underlying cause of the breakdown between you and my client's relationship, and determined that your actions, conduct, and statements made constitute defamation, slander, false light invasion of privacy, and intentional interference with economic relations; such that my client is contemplating taking legal action for damages in relation to the above.

This letter operates as a formal CEASE AND DESIST demand. You are hereby required to remove all defamatory commentary you have made concerning my client and her company, as well as to issue a public retraction and correction of those statements. Given the widespread circulation of your false statements among interpreters and clients, a retraction through the same or similar channels is necessary to mitigate the damage caused. Failure to comply will leave my client no choice but to initiate a lawsuit seeking damages and an injunction against you, as well as seek punitive damages and reimbursement for her legal fees under ORS 20.105.

Please respond to this letter within thirty (30) days stating whether you intend to abide by the cease and desist above. If you do not intend to comply, please retain counsel to determine your exposure explained in this letter, as none of the above is legal counsel, and if you have any questions, please contact your own attorney.
