RE: Final demand and Notice of Injunctive Relief Complaint

Dear Ms. Venturini,

Effective immediately, do not contact my client directly or indirectly for any reason. All communications regarding this matter must be directed to my office. Your continued refusal to comply with our prior demands has been noted. Your stated preference regarding service and communication has also been noted; however, we will proceed in accordance with the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure and will effect service through all lawful means.

This letter serves as your final notice that, due to your failure to comply with our prior demands and your continued direct contact with our client, our office is proceeding with the filing of a civil complaint seeking injunctive relief on our client's behalf. Any further contact with our client will be treated as additional grounds supporting immediate court intervention.

This is not an invitation to further debate. All rights and remedies are expressly reserved.

Regards,

CAUBLE, FURR & BEGUIN, LLP
